Game Rules printed Instant Ticket «CA$H»

Article 1

«CA$H» is the name of an instant ticket offered by Swisslos Interkantonale Landeslotterie (hereinafter «Swisslos»). These Rules are supplementary to Swisslos' existing «Printed Instant Ticket Products: General Terms of Participation» regulations and apply exclusively to «CA$H».

Article 2

The main prize consists of a weekly payment of CHF 500 for a period of 2 years. Payments are made over 52 weeks in the year. This corresponds to a total amount paid out of CHF 26,000 per year, and a total of CHF 52,000 over the full two-year period.

The payment is personal and non-transferable.

Article 3

If the winner dies within two years of their instant ticket win, the remaining payout instalments which would have been disbursed during the two years and which have not yet been disbursed are paid out to the heirs in the form of a one-time lump sum.

The heirs' claim will be due for payment once they have proven their legal right to inheritance. In any case, the heirs' claim is limited to five years following the death of the testator.

Heirs must inform Swisslos of the death of the instant ticket winner immediately. Any sums paid out by Swisslos while unaware of the death of the instant ticket winner must be paid back to Swisslos in full in so far as these payments exceed the amount to which the heirs are entitled in accordance with these Rules.

Article 4

These Rules are valid as of Series No. 2177 and were approved on 27.04.2023 by the Gespa – Swiss Gambling Supervisory Authority.
